

2012 EQUINE VACCINATION SCHEDULE

The products listed below are carried at Kulshan Veterinary Hospital because their effectiveness has been proven in research studies. Other vaccination combinations and manufactures are available at feed stores.

KVH VACCINE	DISEASE	ADULT	ADULT - UNVACCINATED	BROODMARE	FOAL - VACCINATED MARE	FOAL - UNVACCINATED MARE
Calvenza EIV/EHV	Influenza	Semi-annual, spring and fall	Three dose series	Semi-annual 4-6 weeks prior to due date.	Three dose series	Three dose series
	Rhinopneumonitis		4 to 6 weeks between first two doses 3 months between second two doses.		6 months old 7 months old 12 months old	6 months old 7 months old 12 months old
Fort Dodge combination	West Nile	Annual, preferably spring	Two dose series 4 to 6 weeks between doses	Annual, preferably spring 4-6 weeks prior to due date	Three dose series	Three dose series
	WEE				6 months old	1 months old
	EEE				7 months old	2 months old
	Tetanus				12 months old	3 months old
Prodigy	Rhinopneumonitis (abortogenic strain)			Three dose series At the beginning of the 5th, 7th and 9th months of pregnancy
Rabies	Rabies	Annual	Annual	Preferably vaccinate before bred & again 4 - 6 weeks prior to due date	Three dose series 6 months old 7 months old 12 months old	Three dose series 6 months old 7 months old 12 months old
Pinnacle	Strangles	Not routinely recommended
		Never use if recently exposed to strangles Blood testing is available to determine immune status (whether vaccination would be helpful or harmful) Primary immunization two-dose series three weeks apart Then annual		Not approved for pregnant mares	Three dose series 6 months old 7 months old 12 months old	Three dose series 6 months old 7 months old 12 months old